FINE WITH SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

The defendant shall pay to the United States the sum of $ 200.00 , consisting of a fine of $ N/A and a special assessment of $ 200.00 .

These amounts are the totals of the fines and assessments imposed on individual counts, as follows:

This sum shall be paid immediately as follows:

XXX The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay any fines, cost of confinement or supervision.

- The interest requirement is waived.
- The interest requirement is modified as follows:

1 THE COURT: Mr. Green, is there anything you would 2 like to say?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No.

4 THE COURT: There is a role reduction so we know
5 that Mr. Green's base offense level given the role deduction 6 and given the safety valve is 30 and that he does have the 7 safety valve and he has three points off for acceptance of 8 responsibility.

9 I wasn't entirely clear but I am now clear that 10 counsel is urging that under the advisory guidelines Mr. Green 11 is entitled to four levels for minimal role rather than the 12 two levels that is advocated by the government.

13 I'm a little troubled so I'm going to -- I feel 14 comfortable saying that he is not entitled to any more than a 15 three level deduction. I don't feel comfortable with a four 16 level deduction. It is a novel argument that you just made.

17 MR. RUBIN: I'm just repeating what I've been told 18 but with some degree of credibility as it's laid out.

19 THE COURT: I'm going to give him the benefit of the 20 doubt but I don't think it merits a minimal role deduction. I 21 think between a minor and minimal is the most I can give him.
22 Although Mr. Green is very peripherally involved in the 23 Universal scheme, his primary participation involved his role 24 in Lall's cocaine importation scheme in which cooperating 25 witness Mark Sandy played a role similar to that of Adams or 1 perhaps Weatherly in Brown's Universal scheme.

2 After Hall who had been recruited by Sandy on behalf
3 of Lall to retrieve drug-laden containers ceased participation
4 in the conspiracy, Sandy recruited defendant Cleveland Green 5 to play the role that Lall had previously performed, that is,
6 having received information from Lall regarding the flight 7 number, day and time of the flight, serial number of the 8 drug-laden container and gate to which it was to be delivered, 9 Sandy passed this information onto the defendant who located 10 and delivered the container containing the drugs.

11 Sandy testified that Green participated in the 12 shipments in this way on three occasions and was each time to 13 be compensated $10,000. The third shipment was seized, 14 however, leading Green to express to Sandy his dismay that the 15 shipment was quote "heavy and light," meaning a large shipment 16 of cocaine and not marijuana as Lall had led everyone to 17 believe.

18 After some time passed, Lall and Sandy discussed
19 resuming the shipments. The defendant expressed his agreement 20 to participate but only if he were paid at least $80,000 per 21 shipment, now knowing that the shipments were of cocaine and 22 were therefore far more risky.

23 There is no evidence that any further shipments were 24 sent but Green, Lall and Sandy had continuing negotiations 25 concerning how the narcotics would be stored and how much

1 Green would be paid.

2 I think defense counsel is correct that defendant's 3 participation in the Universal scheme involving Brown, Adams
4 and Weatherly is peripheral at best and could well be assessed 5 as minimal, if not less than minimal. At most, Green 6 functioned at a lookout to watch Weatherly's back on three 7 occasions and was paid between $500 and $1,500 for his 8 services. Indeed, Barnett testified that defendant and other 9 members of Weatherly's crew refused to assist Weatherly in the 10 September 20th, 2003 shipment. But because defendant's 11 primary involvement was in the Lall and Sandy scheme involving 12 offense conduct over a period of time, and because defendant's 13 role in that scheme was no less than between minor and 14 minimal, I believe that a three level adjustment would be 15 appropriate.

16 So in assessing an appropriate sentence in this 17 case, I have considered the guidelines which I have calculated 18 at a level 22, criminal history category one, carrying a range 19 of imprisonment of 41 to 51 months.

20 In considering the nature and circumstances of the 21 offenses, I have in the case of Mr. Green considered as an 22 exacerbating factor the fact that defendant made use of his 23 job position at JFK Airport in committing the crimes of which 24 he was convicted.

25 Although I have found that the government failed to 1 present evidence sufficient to find by a preponderance that 2 law enforcement authorities in fact reposed trust in the 3 airport employees, a finding essential to impose the abuse of 4 trust enhancement under the guidelines, there is ample 5 evidence in the record to establish that defendant took 6 advantage of his job in committing these offenses, a job that 7 though not established to be a repository of trust by law 8 enforcement, is nonetheless a highly sensitive one due to the 9 enhanced societal dangers posed by corruption at a major 10 international port or airport such as John F. Kennedy 11 International Airport.

12 On the whole, defendant's crimes were serious ones, 13 exacerbated somewhat by the fact that in committing them, he 14 took advantage of his sensitive position at a major airport 15 but mitigated somewhat by his role and the fact that his 16 offenses involved no weapons or violence of any kind.

17 Turning to the history and characteristics of the 18 defendant, Mr. Green is a 28 year old citizen with no prior 19 brushes with the law. Defendant's fiancée and their two year 20 old daughter live with the fiancée's mother and the defendant 21 has provided weekly financial assistance to them for food and 22 clothing.

23 Given all the facts and circumstances pertaining to 24 the defendant and his offenses, I believe that a sentence of 25 41 months imprisonment, which falls at the bottom of 1 defendant's advisory sentencing guideline, is sufficient but 2 not unduly severe to accomplish the goals of sentencing 3 enumerated in Section 3553(a). The crimes defendant committed 4 are serious ones and a prison term of three and a half years 5 is a severe one thus serving the goal of just punishment.

6 Further in my estimation, the facts and 7 circumstances of this case point to a low risk of recidivism, 8 suggesting that the selected sentence amply serves the 9 statutory goals of specific deterrence and the goal of 10 protecting the public against future acts of the defendant.

11 Finally, I view the selected sentence, which is a 12 lengthy one, as sufficient to serve the goal of general 13 deterrence.

14 In this regard, I believe that it is of a sufficient 15 severity to serve as a deterrent to other airport employees 16 who might otherwise succumb to the temptation to corrupt their 17 sensitive positions for pecuniary or other gain.

18 On the two counts, I therefore sentence Mr. Green to 19 the custody of the Attorney General for a period of 41 months.
20 I also impose a forfeiture of $19,151?

21 MR. D'ALESSANDRO: Actually, you are your Honor, 22 there was no plea agreement. That money has been seized 23 administratively by the agency.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. D'ALESSANDRO: It's been --

1 THE COURT: It's been done administratively?

2 MR. D'ALESSANDRO: Yes.

3 THE COURT: That is fine.

4 I impose a five year period of supervised release 5 with special condition that Mr. Green participate in any 6 substance abuse treatment with a provider selected by the 7 probation department. It may include outpatient or 8 residential treatment as determined by the probation 9 department and that you abstain from all illegal substances 10 and alcohol and contribute to the cost of services rendered by 11 co-payment or full payment in an amount to be determined by 12 the probation department based on his ability to pay and/or 13 the availability of third-party payment, and I prohibit 14 possession of a firearm.

15 I make a finding that he is unable to pay a fine but 16 I will impose the mandatory 200-dollar special assessment.
17 And I will make a recommendation to the Bureau of Prisons that 18 he receive substance abuse treatment in prison and be 19 admitted, if possible, to the five hundred hour.

20 Anything open?

21 MR. D'ALESSANDRO: No, your Honor, he pled to the 22 initial indictment. He just pled to the indictment, no plea 23 agreement with the government.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Green, there are circumstances in 25 which a defendant may appeal the sentence. You discuss that

1 with your lawyer. If you choose to appeal, a notice of appeal 2 must be filed within 10 days and undoubtedly, Mr. Rubin would 3 continue to represent you on appeal.

4 MR. RUBIN: Thank you, your Honor.

5 MR. D'ALESSANDRO: Surrender date or remand 6 immediately?

7 THE COURT: Surrender date.

8 MR. RUBIN: Yes.

9 THE CLERK: May 23rd at 12 noon.

10 MR. RUBIN: And he just reports directly to the 11 marshals on that date?

12 THE CLERK: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Does he have a preference for 14 designation?

15 MR. RUBIN: Your Honor, he has a large and very 16 tight knit family in New York so Fort Dix or --

17 THE COURT: Then I'll recommend as close as possible 18 to the New York metropolitan area consistent with the five 19 hundred hour recommendation.

20 MR. RUBIN: Thank you, your Honor.

21 (Matter concluded.)
